lect From Saloon Men and Allow Latter to Violate the Law—He Proposes a Plan to Destroy the Present System.

New York, March 29.—W. J. Gaynor, mayor of Greater New York, gave out tonight his promised plan of action for making New York a "dry" city on Sunday, and at the same time to eradicate the "eating canker of extortion" by the police, which he characterizes as far worse than Sunday selling.

Since he assumed office the mayor has vigorously combated the police custom of allowing "plain clothes men" to seek Sunday law violations, condemning it as a system offering fruitful opportunity for graft.

Opposing it, he promised a practical substitute, and tonight he came forth with his suggestions, embodied in a letter to William H. Baker, commissioner of police.

Mayor Gaynor's Letter.

His letter said in part:

"The only way effectively to enforce the law is the way prescribed by the law. If public officials are suffered to go outside of the law and do as they like in the ostensible enforcement thereof, the inevitable result is oppression, and hence extortion and blackmail."

"I began in January by notifying the district associations of liquor dealers throughout the city that they had to cease collecting money from their members by means of so-called monthly dues, averaging about $20 a month, and paying the same over to persons of supposed influence and to police officials for protection, as it was called. I am informed that all of these associations have voted to discontinue such collections of money and I believe they have done so."

"Paid Blackmail Every Month."

"The hotels and saloonkeepers, especially the 2,000 which do not belong to such organizations, have also been paying money weekly and monthly to policemen in plain clothes, and also to the agents of private societies, who called regularly for it."

"The provisions of the liquor tax law were carefully drawn to prevent all of this, and they have been followed all over the state outside of this city, resulting in the reduction of extortion to the minimum and a safe, orderly and effective administration of the liquor tax law. It is now time we enforce the law as well as, or even better than it is enforced throughout the rest of the state."

Let State Officers Act.

Here the mayor recommends that the state excise officers "separate and apart from the local police," obtain the necessary evidence to submit to the district attorney.

If the police desire to act they shall do so, only by making formal complaint under oath to the district attorney. This method, he adds, has been entirely rejected, while vast amounts have been collected as extortion, an evil which is "sapping and destroying government."

In conclusion, the mayor condemns certain temperance organizations and reformers, whom he does not name, but whom he charges with having encouraged insubordination among the police.

STANDARD OIL PLANT
BURNS AT KNOXVILLE

Knoxville, Tenn., March 29.—The entire plant of the Standard Oil Company, with the exception of one 80,000-gallon oil tank, was destroyed by fire tonight, of incendiary origin. A wood-frame plant located near by was consumed and four or five little cottages which stood across Kentucky street from the burning plant. The Standard Oil Company's loss is $150,000; insurance unknown.

The Southern Railway lost a number of freight cars, and the Knoxville Railway and Light Company, whose supply yard was located near, lost heavily. The total loss will be close to $200,000.

ARMED WITH TWO REVOLVERS
BOY FIGHTS FOR SWEETHEART

San Diego, Cal., March 29.—Armed with two revolvers and determined to do battle for the lady of his choice against any odds, Thomas Foreman, the 17-year-old son of a wealthy merchant of this place, for the second time eloped last night with Gertrude Seibert, his 15-year-old sweetheart, and he fled to Death Valley in an automobile. His progress was stayed by the snow which blocked the roads at Des Conas, 25 miles east of here, and it is reported that a battle has occurred at that place, the youthful Lochinvar standing off the posse which set out in pursuit. All wires to Des Conas are down, and it is impossible to secure details.

C. O. P. HOUSEHOLD
NEEDS CLEANINGSo Declares Gov. Hughes of New York.

The Governor Urges Fullest
Inquiry Into Charges of Political Corruption—Wholesome
Days for the People, Says the Governor.

New York, March 29.—"The political household needs cleaning, and we shall save money by making the process a thorough one," declared Governor Charles E. Hughes, of New York, tonight, in an address at the banquet of the Merchants' exchange in New Rochelle.

"Fullest inquiry by every competent means," into the charges of political corruption in New York state were advocated by the governor, who declared that he had no effort made to prevent future public life of a similar nature, but declared anew his belief in the direct primary as a salutary measure for purging the political system.

Wholesome Days, Says Hughes.

Starting with the declaration that political corruption is not partisan, but the common enemy, Governor Hughes said:

"These are wholesome days for the people who have full opportunity and promise. It is not when the pestilence is known, the infected quarters ascertained and no effort made to cure it, but when we have reason to be alarmed, but rather when ignorance or indifference permit it to spread unchecked."

Let There Be Fullest Inquiry.

"Let there be the fullest inquiry by every competent means."

"It is needed to expose those who have been faithful to their trust."

"It is needed to put an end to corrupt alliances between business and politics."

"It is needed to protect honest business."

"It is just to party organization that the legislature who should not be the victims of an indiscriminate denunciation by reason of practices in which they have no part."

"It is just to party organization that it may be saved from the corrupt uses which have brought it into contempt."

"It is needed to show how and wherein the people have been deceived that they may protect themselves against deception in the future."

"It is necessary in order that remedial measures, whether in the form of rules or statutes, should be adopted so as to reduce to a minimum the opportunities for stealth and for chicanery in advancing or retarding legislative proposals."

Change in Nominating System.

"I favor a plan of direct nominations by which party candidates for elective offices shall be chosen directly by the secret vote of the party voters. I also favor the election of the party ticket by the party voters. This subject is one about which I feel keenly and yet, as you know, it involves no personal interest of mine. The responsibility for proper action at this time in the improvement of our nominating methods cannot be evaded. The issue inevitably will remain until it is rightly decided."

DID PERCY WIN
HIS SENATE TOGA
BY GIVING BRIBES?That Question Has Split the People of Mississippi Into Factions.PROBING OF THE SCANDAL
ORDERED BY LEGISLATURE

Percy's Friends Intend to Attack Vardaman, and Will Try to Have Him Indicted for Alleged Violation of Law While Governor—Situation Is Very Tense.

Jackson, Miss., March 29.—Behind closed doors tonight the state senate commenced its investigation of the statement made by State Senator Theodore G. Bilbo, that he accepted a bribe of $445 from the hands of L. C. Dulaney to change his vote from former Governor Vardaman to Leroy Percy, the successful candidate in the recent memorable senatorial contest.

All doors and corridors leading to the senate chamber were securely barred, and no statements relative to the proceedings will be made public save those issued after the body has finished its probing.

Sensor Bilbo and Mr. Dulaney have summoned witnesses to give testimony. All questions propounded to witnesses are to be submitted in writing, and a full stenographic report made of the proceedings.

To Attack Senator Bilbo.

Witnesses, it is asserted, will attack the reliability of Senator Bilbo, while, on the other hand, a dozen or more witnesses from the home of the senator are in Jackson to testify as to the high esteem in which he is held. His flight to retain his seat in the senate will be on the general grounds that he was fully justified in accepting the bribe; that he was acting in the capacity of a detective, and actuated by thoroughly honest motives.

In order to sustain the impeachment proceedings and expel Bilbo from membership, it will be necessary to secure a two-thirds majority of all members present. Whether this majority can be secured is problematical.

Dulaney Under Arrest.

Mr. Dulaney was arrested this morning and immediately released under bond in the sum of $5,000, signed by D. J. Morrison, his brother-in-law, and L. C. Enoch, one of the wealthiest lumber manufacturers in the south.

He declines to make any statement except to declare that Bilbo's statement is a political "frame-up," and expresses confidence that it will be proven, both in the circuit court trial and the legislative investigation. That he will also demand a rigid investigation in open session, he has not said.

General Graft Inquiry.

There seems to be no longer any doubt that the present legislature will conduct a general "graft" investigation. With the Aldre case out of the way, the question of a thorough search into the dark alleys of past legislative history lies unavoidably before the republican leaders.

Aldre's resignation absolutely closes his case. All that the senate could have done, after sustaining the charges against him, would have been to put him out; and such a punishment his own act forestalled. While bribery is a crime under the statutes, the allegations against Aldre have not been proven. With the Aldre case out of the way, the question of a thorough search into the dark alleys of past legislative history lies unavoidably before the republican leaders.

Fight to Finish.

Tonight the formal declaration was made by leading members of the Percy faction that they intended to wage a fight to the finish, and will insist on a thorough probing of each and every feature of the senatorial contest; that they will put before the Hinds county grand jury evidence tending to prove that former Governor Vardaman used his executive contingent fund extravagantly and unlawfully; that he failed to make a proper account thereof, as required by law; that during the year of 1906 he accepted and used a bribe of $100,000, and that he used the pass in question, bearing his signature on the back, they declare, will be presented to the grand jury within the next forty-eight hours.

What the Preacher Says.

Rev. S. B. Culpender, president of the Clarke Memorial college at Newton, Miss., mentioned as the one to whom State Senator Bilbo, of Mississippi, turned over the money he alleged he received for his vote in the recent senatorial contest, is quoted in a dispatch as follows:

"I was in Jackson on business for some days in January, and for several days roomed with Senator Bilbo. I did not go to Jackson at his request, and Mr. Bilbo never asked me to witness any transaction of whatsoever nature."

"One night Mr. Bilbo showed me a roll of bills, something less than $800. I think, and told me that they were trying to bribe him for his vote. He did not mention any names, and did not ask me to keep the money for him, nor did he offer it to me. I did not ask him any questions. I do not even know Mr. Dulaney. I know nothing of this case, and do not want my name connected with it."

Denial from Percy.

Washington, March 29.—Senator Leroy Percy, of Mississippi, made the following statement today about the Mississippi senatorial situation:

"I am absolutely without any knowledge or information on this subject, except what is contained in press patches from Jackson. It seems an unnecessary statement for me to make, but I feel it my duty to state that not a cent was ever used during the senatorial fight in Jackson by me or with my procurement, consent or knowledge, to influence any member of the legislature, nor have I the least idea that any such expenditure was ever made by any friend of mine."

PARTY ON THE FAMOUS BILLIONAIRE TRAIN
SPEEDING FROM CALIFORNIA TO NEW YORK

There have been plenty of "millionaire trains" run over the railroads of the United States, but it is not often a "billionaire special" is arranged by railroad officials. Leaving Pasadena, Cal., Friday, the Santa Fe road undertakes to carry six private cars containing some of the wealthiest people in the world from their wintering out to the summer outing in New York and Newport. Stopping at Grand canyon for a breathing spell, the famous "billionaire train" will thunder its way eastward, guarded as never a train was guarded before from accidents. The fact that the train is made up of so many wealthy people has attracted the attention of the country, and railroad officials are softly cursing under their breath and staying up nights to see that no accident happens to their wealthy patrons. Andrew Carnegie and his wife head the party, with Mrs. Russell Sage and her friends a close second. Then come Edwin Gould, his wife and children, with a few folks worth three or four millions of dollars to balance the car. W. Seward Webb, having some $20,000,000 and being a railroad director, agreed to "take the first car" in the train and therefore any cinders, Major and Mrs. Slocomb chipped in with three New Yorkers, and they, too, have a private car, which adds a military guard to the party. The train is due in New York shortly after the 1st of April.

Forty Members of New York
Senate Voted to Sustain Con-grer's Charges—Conger Seems Resolved to Remain in Senate and Fight.

Albany, N. Y., March 29.—Jotham P. Aldre went to his home in Norwich tonight a private citizen, branded as a bribe-taker by his former colleagues in the senate, and by his own act no longer a member of that body. Senator Conger, who filed the charges against Aldre, stated here to fight.

The battle that confronts Conger is no longer to prove his charges. To this extent the senate vindicated him today, when forty of its forty members voted that the charges had been sustained by the evidence brought before them.

Conger Won't Resign.

It is believed that Conger came to the senate today prepared to resign as soon as he received this vindication. However that may be, he did not resign, and developments make it likely that he will not do so.

The cause of this is a resolution introduced by Senator Cobb, the majority leader, providing for the appointment of a committee to present to the senate charges against Conger "growing out of his connection with legislation and the use of funds to influence the members of the legislature or other persons with reference thereto."

The Cobb resolution was referred to the judiciary committee. It is expected that the committee will report it promptly to the senate.

Cairo, March 29.—Ex-President Roosevelt's speech before the Egyptian university has stirred the extreme nationalists to a state of fury.

Seven hundred students this evening marched to his hotel and demonstrated against him, shouting in Arabic: "Down with autocracy; give us a constitution." The demonstrators were applauded by many spectators and some of the guests left the hotel, fearing violence.

Colonel Roosevelt was not in the hotel at the time, but drove up shortly afterwards. He said he had heard a noise which reminded him of American college cries, but he had no idea that he was the cause of it.

Another protest meeting was held this evening at which speeches less violent than at the first meeting were made. Great efforts were put forth to cause Colonel Roosevelt to attend, but he smilingly declined.

The speech which caused the outbreak was made by Colonel Roosevelt before the students of the university. During the address he attacked the nationalist movement and denounced the assassination of the Egyptian premier.

BREWER WILL REST
IN SOIL OF KANSAS

Washington, March 29.—The body of the late Justice Brewer, of the supreme court of the United States, whose death came so unexpectedly last night, will be taken back to his old home in Leavenworth, Kan., for burial. It was the oft-expressed wish of the famous jurist.

A short funeral service will be held at the Brewer residence here Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Members of the supreme court will act as pallbearers. At 3:40 p. m. the funeral party, including practically the entire court, will start on the journey to Kansas. The funeral train is scheduled to arrive in Leavenworth at 7:30 a. m. Saturday.

Attorney General Wickersham was asked if there was any chance for a rehearing in the Standard Oil and tobacco cases pending before the supreme court owing to the death of Justice Brewer. He declared there was the possibility of a rehearing, but he did not consider it at all probable.

President Taft today sent a letter to Chief Justice Fuller in which he expressed condolence with the members of the court "upon the loss of so able, learned, genial and respected an associate."

ACCUSED OF ATTACK
MACON MAN SKIPS

Brown House, Macon, Ga., March 27.—(Special.)—Assuming a name which he furnished the police as W. T. Medlin, a man who had been a short stay with the city authorities has skipped, forfeiting collateral bond and is now being hunted as the man who entered the room of Miss Fannie Rittenberry, in East Macon Saturday night, and choked her into insensibility before he was frightened away from the house. Her screams, however, attracted attention and Patrol Officers Barnhart and Jordan were soon after the man. He was arrested and locked up.

At police station he showed evidence of having been drinking and the impression made upon the officers was that he had raised a disturbance in the home with his own wife. He was therefore charged with disorderly conduct on the docket, a light collateral was put up, and when he was himself he was released. He took time to hide himself from the police and he is now being hunted on the more serious charge.

GENERAL ROSSER
CALLED BY DEATH

Charlottesville, Va., March 29.—General Thomas LaFayette Rosser, aged 73, died tonight. He was taken ill ten days ago with a severe chill. Other complications set in, resulting in his death.

He was a member of the class at West Point when ordered into the field by Lincoln, but he resigned and entered the service of the Confederacy at Montgomery as first lieutenant. When the surrender came he refused to capitulate and, cutting his way through the union lines, took the shattered remnants of his command to Lynchburg and there disbanded them.

When the war with Spain was declared he was a brigadier general of volunteers and commanded a brigade composed of Minnesota, Ohio and Pennsylvania regiments. He was serving his second term as postmaster at Charlottesville. A wife and three children survive him.

TIDE IS TURNING
TO DEMOCRACYThat Is Opinion of President of Princeton.

Woodrow Wilson Says the Day
Is Near When the Democratic Party Must Take Charge of the Affairs of the Country.

New York, March 29.—The political tide is now turning democratic and the day when the democratic party must take charge of this country's affairs is almost at hand, were the declarations made by Woodrow Wilson, president of Princeton University, in a speech at the democratic dinner in Elizabeth, N. J., tonight.

Mr. Wilson outlines the character of legislation which the democrats should give the country to meet the present economic problems.

Curb the Trusts.

After stating that he thinks "it possible to state the character we should wish to give to legislation," he continued:

"In the first place, we should wish not merely to curb the trusts, and above all, we should not wish to regulate them in such a way as will make them either partners or creatures of the government itself. We should wish to square their whole action and responsibility with the general interest."

"Our regulations of public interests must be legal regulation and not direct management."

In the second place, it is clearly our duty as soon as we get the opportunity to take the government out of the business of patronage, the business of granting favors and privileges of arranging the laws so that this, that, or the other group of men may make large profits out of the business of the government. We must make no such thing a part of the government which enables groups of individuals to pile up enormous fortunes, as for a general stimulation, a universal opportunity for enlightenment and justice. I am thinking, of course, of tariff legislation."

Protection Just Patronage.

He then declared that the policy of protection has long since, as dealt with by congress, ceased to be a policy of protection and become a policy of patronage.

"In brief," he concluded, "our program should be a general revival of popular politics, of common counsel of responsible leadership. We must supply efficient leaders and eschew all the lower personal objects of politics. It is a case of must as well as a case of may, a case of necessity as well as a case of privilege. A new day has come. Men and measures are being scrutinized as never before. For myself, I verily believe that we are upon the eve of a new era of political liberty, when men literally and truly than ever before we can realize the ideals of popular government and of individual privilege."

They were traced to New York by means of three trunks shipped from Richmond with the seizure of which $30,000 worth of the $85,000 lot of stamps obtained in the robbery were recovered.

The prisoners gave the names of Frank Chester, 34 years old, of St. Paul, Minn., and Frederick Cunningham, 34 years old. Cunningham maintains that he is a banker and that his home is in London, England.

Both appeared at the Grand Central station last night, accompanied by the third and unidentified man who made his escape.

Examination of the trunk revealed in addition to the $20,000 worth of stamps a set of burglar's tools, described at headquarters as the finest ever brought to New York. There were also two 38-caliber revolvers in the lot.

PEOPLE ARE IN REVOLT

He Admits the Democrats Will

Also Admits That the Payne-Aldrich Tariff Bill Has Turned the Country Against His Administration.

By John Corrigan, Jr.
Washington, March 29.—(Special.)—President Taft may decline to accept the republican nomination for president next time. Unless the national political situation improves considerably, he will step aside for ex-President Theodore Roosevelt as the only man who can save the republican party from a disastrous defeat.

The tariff is to blame for the president's present determination. To say that he is resolved on this momentous step is simply to quote the impression received by leading republican members of congress who have talked with him the past few days.

He Is Tired of Strife.

They say he is tired of the turmoil and the strife and criticism. He is worn out with the cares of office. His recent public utterances are particularly sensitive to criticism. In explaining this attitude toward journalistic barbed arrows, he has spoken almost in an appealing way to the press of the country. Having been on the bench, practically free from public criticism, he has confessed that he found it difficult to accustom himself to outspoken condemnation.

Finally he has reached a state of positive gloom and pessimism as to the outlook, and has confided his fears to his advisers. That the democrats will carry the next house, he is convinced beyond a reasonable doubt.

The Ohio Situation.

The situation in Ohio is causing President Taft immediate apprehension. If the democrats carry the state this fall and elect Judson Harmon governor, he realizes that Harmon will present a formidable opponent in the national elections two years hence.

The president has called a conference of the Ohio members of congress, and will discuss the situation fully with them and take counsel as to what should be done to stem the tide and win over the disaffected republicans.

The widespread criticism of the tariff bill of 1908, the resulting defeat which almost wiped the republican organization off the map may be duplicated in the next election, according to the president.

DOG TAX MAY BECOME ISSUE IN COMING STATE CAMPAIGN

The question of the dog tax is looming large upon the horizon of prospective political issues in the coming campaign in Georgia.

"The question of the tax on dogs is bound to be an issue in the next legislative campaign," says Comptroller General Wright. "The time for settling this momentous question for all time is now upon us and men who seek to storm the heights of fame through legislative halls must put themselves on record."

The law putting a state tax of $1 on dogs of all description, mongrels, puppy, whelp, bound and curs of all degrees, was passed at the last session of the legislature after voluminous discussion and after much protest from many quarters.

And now comes the revolt. From the good old county of Madison the signal gun is fired. "I see at once that I am going to have trouble with taxpayers about the dog tax," John F. Brown, tax collector of Madison county, writes Comptroller General Wright. "Some say they will not give in their dogs for tax. Please write me a plain letter at once what to do with such a person, so that I can read it to them."

Mr. Brown also desires to know in what column of the tax digest he should put the dogs.

"I see a column for polls and professions," he writes, "but I see no column for dogs. Answer quickly."

In reply, General Wright will say that if the owner of any dog fails to pay the tax, the tax collector shall issue an execution against the dog, the dog shall be seized by a bailiff and put up for sale, and if he is so worthless that none will pay the price of redemption which is equal to the amount of the tax, he shall be taken to some convenient spot and executed according to law. By what method he shall be executed the law sayeth not.

Wayne County Fair.
Jesup, Ga., March 29.—(Special.)—The Wayne County Fair Association has been organized and a charter applied for, and it is an assured fact that a Wayne county agricultural fair will be held in Jesup, Ga., at some time next fall. It is contemplated to have the fair just prior to the state fair in Macon, with the intention of selecting the best from the county fair for an exhibit at the state fair. A number of committees have been appointed and the premium list, covering farm products, has already been published, and lists covering other departments will be announced soon.

PARCELS POST BILL TO BE CONSIDERED
It is One of the Measures Pushed by the Farmers' Union.

Washington, March 29.—(Special.)—Hearings on the parcels post bill will be begun before a subcommittee of the house committee on postoffices and post roads on April 26. A. C. Shuford, of Newton, N. C., will appear before the committee as the representative of the Farmers' Union, and make an argument for the legislation. The subcommittee consists of Representatives Huff of Pennsylvania, Lawton of Illinois, Murdock of Kansas, Fasset of New York, Moon of Tennessee, and Lloyd of Missouri.

This is one of the measures for which the Farmers' Union has been fighting.

DEMURRAGE RULES NOT SATISFACTORY

Some Opposition Manifested to Uniform System

Georgia Shippers Appear Before Railroad Commission. Three Objections to New System — Commission Takes the Change Under Advisement.

That the new code of uniform demurrage rules, as prepared by the national association of railroad commissioners and approved by the interstate commerce commission, will not give general satisfaction to the shippers of this state was indicated at the meeting of the railroad commission yesterday when the question of adopting the rules for intra-state shipments was thoroughly discussed by representatives of the railroads and of the shippers.

The new code of uniform demurrage rules will become effective for interstate shipments on April 1, and the question of whether or not the present rules should be made to apply to intra-state shipments or whether the demurrage rules in force at present shall be retained.

John W. Zuber, representing the wholesale lumber dealers, was emphatic in the statement of his position that the new rules will not prove satisfactory to that class of shippers.

Not Sure of Position. Other shippers present were not sure of their position in the matter, and while there was considerable doubt as to whether or not the new rules would prove satisfactory, it was generally admitted that the present rules are not altogether perfect and that some uniform system is greatly to be desired.

While there was no strong opposition to the code of rules in general, a number of shippers at the hearing entered protests against three features of the rules, which they believe will be detrimental to their interests. The objections were as follows:

1. The new rules omit the requirement of the present rule of the commission that in case of the arrival of shipments of freight the weight of the shipment and the freight charges shall be given by the railroads.

2. The new rules do not properly take care of the "bunching" of cars. Under the present rule of the commission 24 hours additional time is allowed in which to unload the cars when more than four cars are received in one day from the same line.

3. The new code omits the rule which requires railroad companies to notify shippers of undelivered or rejected shipments.

Among those representing the shippers were John W. Zuber, lumber dealer; W. B. Wingham, of the Wilmington-Tift Lumber Company; Wilson, lumber dealer; Harry T. Moore, secretary of the Atlanta Freight Bureau; J. D. Wood, secretary of the Atlanta Builders' Exchange, and others.

J. C. Haskell, chairman of the southwestern demurrage bureau, represented the railroads at the hearing and spoke in favor of the adoption of the rules.

Credit for Demurrage.
In discussing that feature of the rules which relates to credit for demurrage, W. B. Wingham said:

"In one month a consignee may, for 24 days, unload his cars in the time required and for the month have to his credit 24 days, or 24, which is charged off any demurrage that may have accumulated against him."

"If at the end of the month he has had no demurrage charged against him, the railroad wipes off the slate and says he must start anew on the next month. The next month cars may accumulate in the yard and be shoved in all in a bunch, and it is impossible to unload all in time. He must pay demurrage, as the company has wiped out his credit days of the previous month and enjoys the fruits of his activity in unloading promptly. The rule should work both ways."

At the conclusion of the hearing the commission took the matter under advisement and will probably render a decision within the next few days.

SEEKS TO REVISE HOSPITAL RULES

Greater Authority May Be Given Grady Superintendent.

At the meeting of the board of trustees yesterday of the Grady hospital the question of revising the rules and regulations of the institution was taken up and discussed at length, the result being that the question was finally referred to a joint committee composed of the executive committee of the board of examiners and the executive committee of the hospital.

The suggestion that the rules and regulations be revised came from Dr. W. B. Summerall, superintendent of the hospital, who says that the present rules and regulations are defective, in his opinion.

The proposed changes relate entirely to giving more power to the superintendent as executive head of the hospital; and the present move to revise the rules was brought about by differences arising in regard to the authority of the superintendent and other officials of the hospital resulting in conflicting orders.

About ten days ago Dr. Summerall brought the matter to the attention of the committee on medical matters, which returned a written and comprehensive statement as to their views.

The superintendent, however, is not satisfied with their attitude, and brought the question before the board.

Proposed Amendments.
He suggested an enlargement of the rules by which the superintendent shall be the executive head of the hospital, and the authorized means of communication between the board of trustees and the medical board; and that, as the executive head of the hospital, he shall be a member ex-officio of all boards and committees of said boards, with the right to be heard in all matters, but without the power to vote.

Dr. Summerall proposes that the superintendent shall make any rules and regulations that may be desirable for the government of the employees and patients; that in case of gross violation of said rules, misconduct, or insubordination, he shall have power to suspend temporarily such offender; that he shall have the power to admit or reject any patient, and that the superintendent of nurses shall make reports concerning her department, containing such matters of information as shall be required by the superintendent.

Transfer of Authority.
These suggestions are intended to be included in various sections of the rules already in force. Dr. Summerall says that under the interpretation of the rules by the committee on medical matters the house staff has the authority, which the superintendent should have for the proper conducting of the hospital, and that at present the superintendent of nurses is required to make no report whatsoever.

The members of the board seemed favorable to the proposed changes, but to expedite matters the entire question was turned over to the joint committee, to which it would eventually come.

The board requested that the committee be notified of the matter at once, as it deemed the question of sufficient importance to demand immediate attention.

The remainder of the session was consumed by the reading of the regular monthly reports.

The graduating exercises of the Atlanta College of Pharmacy will take place this evening, Wednesday, at the Grand Opera House, at 8:30 o'clock sharp. Judge Joseph Henry Lumpkin, of the Supreme court, will deliver the annual address; and the president, Judge T. P. Westmoreland, will confer the degrees. There will be excellent music. No charge for admission. All are invited.

MAY GET POSTOFFICE BY PAYING $20,000

Mayor Thinks There Is Now a Chance to Secure a City Hall.

Since the federal government must provide $20,000 more for the completion of the new postoffice, Mayor Maddox thinks some arrangement might now be made with the national government whereby the city would pay the $20,000 if the old postoffice was given to Atlanta for a city hall.

Some time ago the mayor went to Washington and had a talk with Congressman Livingston about Atlanta securing the old postoffice. At that time it was believed that the building would be used as headquarters by the Department of the Gulf. Since then it has been given out that the building was not suitable for that purpose. It is believed if Atlanta will pay the $20,000 for the completion of the new postoffice the city will have a city hall before many months have passed by.

COTTON ACREAGE WILL BE SMALLER

Commissioner Hudson Expects Decrease of at Least Five Per Cent.

That at least 5 per cent less cotton acreage will be planted in 1916 than was the case in 1909 in this state, is the opinion of Commissioner of Agriculture T. G. Hudson.

"The indications are," said Mr. Hudson, "that considerably less cotton will be planted in Georgia this year than was planted last year."

"One reason is that farmers have discovered that increased acreage does not necessarily mean more cotton. Another reason is that food crops have increased to such a price that farmers cannot afford to buy them and are forced to raise them."

"The thing that got the people in the habit of raising so much cotton was the low price of food crops and the correspondingly high price of cotton. Corn, oats and other necessary articles of a similar character were so low that the farmer was justified in buying those things while he raised cotton for sale."

"Now conditions have changed, and while cotton will still bring a good price, other things have advanced to such a price that he cannot afford to buy them, and he is also justified by the high prices to raise those things for the market."

The amount of fertilizer tags sold this year does not show any increase over the sales of last year for the same period of time, but if it did show an increase it would not mean that more cotton is being planted, for cotton seed, which is used ordinarily to fertilize corn, has brought such a good price that farmers have sold what they had and will buy fertilizer for their crops."

Through inadvertence the name of the Woodmen of the World was used in yesterday's report of the supreme court decision in the case of the Columbian Woodmen.

At the request of officials of the Woodmen of the World, the statement is made that these two organizations are separate and distinct, and neither has anything to do with the other. The Woodmen of the World had no connection whatever with the litigation to which the Columbian Woodmen was a party.

How Fat May Be Removed Rapidly by a Simple Home Remedy Without Causing Wrinkles, Disturbing the Diet or Necessity for Exercise.

"Fat is nothing but unused energy," says a prominent physician, and the man or woman who is burdened with it can easily get rid of it if they wish. All they need is 1-2 ounce of Marmola, 1-2 ounce of Fluid Extract (Cascara Aromatic and 8-12 ounces of Peppermint Water; all of which they can get at any good drug store for a few cents. Then let them take one teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime until they are down to the weight they want to be.

The simple home remedy is far and away better than any or all the patent or secret medicines for it reduces the fat safely and harmlessly. The ingredients are, in fact, beneficial to the system, having both tonic and purifying qualities, and so help rather than distress the stomach. The remedy does not cause wrinkles, for it reduces one gradually and naturally, preserving a good outline, and best of all, needs neither physical exercise to help it do the work, nor does it require any change in diet—one can get results and still take things easy—eating meanwhile just what, when and how he or she pleases. Be sure and get the Marmola in a sealed package, so that you get Marmola and not a substitute.

"Ducky" Holmes' Toledo Mud Hens evened up the score with the Champions yesterday afternoon, when they applied the whitewash brush, smearing on five coats, while the best the Champions could do on Monday was to apply one coat.

The Mud Hens hit timely, bunching the hits with the wildness of Pitcher Martina, sending four of their tallies home in the first four innings, and adding one more when E. Brown Rogers took the slab in the fifth inning.

Pitchers Owens and Robinson twirled fine ball for the Toledo bunch, and although the Champions managed to get eight safe bingles, which is usually good for several runs when the Champions are doing the smearing, they kept the hits so scattered that there was very little chance of a tally coming home, though the Mud Hens backed up their box artists in splendid style.

One Chance in Outfield. A peculiar thing in the game was the fact that the box score shows the Champions credited with more assists than they had put-outs. This is easily explained, though, when it is pointed out that there was not a single put-out in the outfield. There was one chance, but Roy Moran dropped that.

The box score tells the story:

However, President Dovey decided to play the two games and the Doves will be here on the two days named. The Doves had a game scheduled with Birmingham on Saturday, too. Probably the team will be split and sent there so as to fill both dates.

NEW YORK GIANTS
HERE TOMORROW

Christy Mathewson Will Twirl Part of Game, Raymond the Other.

Tomorrow afternoon, the New York Giants, headed by that man of baseball brains, John J. McGraw, will tackle Otto Jordan's Champions at Ponce de Leon park.

In this game the local fans will have an opportunity of witnessing in action for the first time locally the greatest twirler of them all, the famous Christy Mathewson, who for several years has been the best pitcher of the Giants, and one of the best in the business.

"Bugs" Raymond, the only living insect that walks on two legs, will probably occupy the mound in the second half of the game.

Another former Atlanta player with the Giants is Al Bridwell, the shortstop. He played short for the Crackers a few years ago.

Buffalo 3, Mercer 0.

Macon, Ga., March 29.—(Special.)—Buffalo defeated Mercer in the second game of the series by the score of 3 to 0. The collegians played classy ball, but the experienced Buffers had no trouble in winning the game.

Burroughs, for Mercer, lined out two safe hits, and Brain connected with the ball for a home run for Buffalo. The pitchers for both teams worked well, Carmichael showing up best for Buffalo.

24-HOUR RACE NEXT
AT LOCAL SPEEDWAY

Atlanta will probably have a 24-hour race at the Speedway shortly after the coming race meet in May. Manager Bill Nye, of the local association, is feeling the pulse of the Automobile manufacturers and will make some definite announcement shortly.

In addition to the 24-hour race the local Speedway may pull off some "night races," a novel feature, which, of course, will depend upon the success of the 24-hour race.

BENEFIT AFFAIR
AT PONCE TODAYBoys' High School Meets
Peacock School
Nine.

This afternoon at Ponce de Leon park the Boys' High School nine and the Peacock School team will hook up in what promises to be one of the fiercest games that has ever been played in local prep circles.

The game will be played under the auspices of the Atlanta Martha Berry circle, and this organization will reap the benefit from the proceeds.

The prices of the game are announced as follows: Men: 50 cents; ladies, 25 cents; High School and Marist College boys, 35 cents; children of the grammar school age, 15 cents.

The tickets will be found on sale at Brown & Allen's, Silverman's, Cole's book store and Palmer's drug store, 337 Peachtree street.

The line-up and batting order of the two teams is announced as follows: High School—Holliday, first base; Montague, second base; Sutton, catcher and manager; Johnson, shortstop and captain; right field; McCortie, right field; Lester, left field; Millner, center field; Westmoreland, pitcher; McCauley, pitcher; Woodward, sub.

Peacock—Holleman, left field; Brown, second base; McDaniel, first base; Holland, shortstop; Martin, pitcher; Vaughn, third base; Swearingen, catcher; Lampkin, left field; Broughton, right field; White, Skinner and Roberts, subs.

The graduating exercises of the Atlanta College of Pharmacy will take place this evening, Wednesday, at the Grand Opera House, at 8:30 o'clock sharp. PAUL SENTELLE
JOINS THE CHAMPSShortstop Arrived in the City Last Night From Chattanooga.

Listen, ye fans, the joyful tidings to be spread. Paul Sentelle, who will play the shortstop position for the Champions this season, is no longer a myth but a reality.

Paul is here in the flesh. He arrived from Chattanooga last night and is looking fit as a fiddle and suspense of who Atlanta would have this season for the shortstop position is at an end. Manager Billy Dahlen, of the Brooklyn roller Dodgers, sent him to Manager Jordan yesterday, every team in both big leagues having waived on the player.

Sentelle is a grand ball player and the man for Atlanta's shortfield. He is full of life all the time, with plenty of ginger and experience. He is also a fine fielder, going after everything in sight and a good hitter as well as a heady base runner.

What's the matter with that infield now for the Champions. Walker at third, Sentelle at short, Jordan at second and either Hohnhorst or Sweeney at first. Some class, eh?

Riverside 11, Bingham 11.

Asheville, N. C., March 29.—(Special.)—Riverside and Bingham played a tie game here today. The game was a swatting fest throughout, both pitchers hit freely. Many errors were made by both teams. The game was cleanly played, but the umpiring was much off. Riverside plays Bingham another game tomorrow, and one on Thursday. This series will practically decide the prep supremacy of North Carolina and Georgia.

Money Poured In on Horse Until Odds Were Forced From 15 to 1 Down to 5 to 1—Lot of Money Placed in Out-of-Town Pool Rooms.

Jacksonville, Fla., March 29.—The victory of Cooney K. in the day's opener was easily the feature of the day's racing at Moncrief Park, inasmuch as the Burthell sprinter was the medium of one of the most gigantic coups of the season. Not until the betting had been posted on the event was it whispered that the right "connections" were down, hook, line and slinker in the out-of-town pool rooms.

When this became known a general rush was made to get aboard with the result that the odds were gradually forced from 15 to 1 to a closing of 5 to 1. The way the race was run Cooney K. had the best of it. Miss Sly was another long shot that brought home the money this afternoon.

DISEASES OF MEN

DR. WM. M. BAIRD.

If I have some decided and original views on these diseases it is because I have been continuously in the work for 33 years, and for 25 years have devoted my whole time to these difficult and delicate cases.

I believe that many cases of Stricture may be cured with less harsh treatment than they often receive. I believe this because I have demonstrated it again and again.

I believe that Syphilis needs not only the proper remedies, but careful, intelligent methods and attention to detail in order to cure and cure permanently.

I believe that Chronic Gonorrhea causes more physical wrecks than any other disease. I believe this because I know. I believe that nothing needs more scientific methods in order to cure, and the man who suffers from it knows, too, that I am right.

I believe in straightforward advertising and honest business methods, combined with conscientious treatment, and if you are in need of advice I will take pleasure in examining you free of charge.

Office hours: 7 a. m. to 3 p. m.; Sunday, 10 to 1.

INSURANCE OFFICERS CHARGED WITH FRAUD

Want to Head Off Merger of Two Companies.

Suit Filed by Stockholder of Kentucky Company Charges
Officers With Fraud, Mismanagement and Extravagance.

Louisville, Ky., March 29.—In a suit filed here late today by which William G. Rau, a stockholder in the Citizens' Life Insurance Company, asking to be allowed to sue for himself and other stockholders, seeks to head off a merger of the Citizens' Life and the Citizens' National Life Insurance Company, he brings a general indictment against the officers of the company, charging fraud, mismanagement and extravagance.

"MEN HIGHER UP" SOUGHT IN THE BRIBERY CASES
Grand Jury Hearing Evidence Against Banks of Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, March 29.—The principals of "men higher up" in the Cincinnati bribery cases were still unnamed at the conclusion of today's probe by the grand jury, but the activity of that body gave evidence that further sensational cases are being investigated.

Dix Diamonds Save Your Surplus By Buying Diamonds

Are you satisfied with what you did with your surplus earnings during the past year?

It is very hard for the average person to acquire the habit of systematic saving.

If you haven't anything to show for the money you could have saved this past year, try investing in a diamond now.

Our partial payment plan offers every inducement. A cash deposit, small monthly payments, and in the end, you own a diamond paid for with what would otherwise be thrown away.

Diamonds are the best investment that one can make. They earn more than twice their equivalent in a bank account. They are sure to advance.

A diamond will give other returns. It will increase your self-respect and the respect of others. It is your duty to look to your personal appearance.

First impressions are usually the most lasting, and nine out of every ten people will accept you on your appearance. Diamonds show you are prosperous, a good one will advertise you as a success—that means opportunity, for the world loves a success.

A diamond is within reach of every one earning a regular income. Pay us a visit, and let us go over our plans with you, or write for our Diamond Book No. 7.

CORRUPTION LAID TO CONGRESSMEN

In Connection With the Ship Subsidy Measure.

Special Committee Has Been Named by House to Investigate the Accusations Made by the Advocates of Ship Subsidy.

Washington, March 29.—Charges of corrupt practices of members of the house for the advancement of foreign or other shipping interests in connection with ship subsidy legislation will be investigated by a special committee of five members of the house. From the committee on the judiciary Mr. Sterling, of Illinois, today reported to the house a resolution providing for an investigation into the charges.

Not Broad Enough.
Mr. Steiensen, of Minnesota, upon whose initiative the committee reported the resolution, expressed dissatisfaction with it as not broad enough to probe thoroughly all phases of the question.

He proposed an amendment which provided that if the charges made by The American Flag, the organ of the Merchant Marine League of Cleveland, Ohio, against himself and others should not be sustained, the committee should investigate the question whether the author of the charges in making them had sought to intimidate and improperly control the action of members of congress in their official capacity as representatives and in violation of their privileges, placing those making the charges in contempt of the house. This amendment was accepted by Mr. Sterling for the committee, and was made a part of the resolution.

Kustermann Declares Innocence.
Mr. Kustermann, of Wisconsin, "as one of the accused," said he hoped to see the fullest possible investigation of the charges of members of the house. He was frequently applauded by democrats and republicans alike, as he declared his innocence of any connection or knowledge of the corrupt practices.

Upon the initiative of Mr. Hughes, of New Jersey, the resolution as reported and amended was recommended to the committee on the judiciary with instructions to amend the resolution further, to provide for an investigation as to the existence and conduct of any lobby affecting ship subsidy legislation instead of merely investigating specific charges made against Mr. Steiensen and others.

After this change had been made the house, by a vote of 125 to 60, passed the resolution as finally amended.

Franklin Superior Court Convenes With Two Murder Cases on Docket.

Carnesville, Ga., March 29.—(Special.) Franklin superior court convened Monday, with Judge D. W. Meador presiding for Judge C. H. Brand, who is detained at home on account of the illness of Mrs. Brand. Clifford Walker, solicitor, is present, with George Goode assisting.

Judge Meador delivered an able charge to the grand jury, among other things calling attention to the fight being waged against crime by the Constitution.

The prospects are that court will not last very long on account of illness in families of attorneys.

There are two charges of murder which will be tried, Judge Fant and Orrin Rucker. Both are defended by Judge W. R. Little and A. G. & Julian McCurry, of Hartwell.

MAISON PEOPLE STUNG
BY FORTUNE TELLER

Madame Gray Is Being Searched For by Police.

Spiritualist Mysteriously Disappears Sunday With the Effects of a Large Number of Victims.

Macon, Ga., March 29.—(Special.) Madame Cora Gray, spiritualist fortune teller, of a rather elevated type and a treasure finder of rare qualifications, mysteriously disappeared Sunday with the effects, the police say, of a large number of persons who had placed their absolute confidence in her.

She had treasures, the cash of a rich patronage she found during her short stay here, and many people, some of them moving in select circles, lost heavily.

According to information furnished by the police the woman has been operating throughout the country on a similar swindle. She disappeared with her husband Sunday night, and no trace of either of the two has been found. A close investigation of her movements has been instituted.

WOMEN LURED TO WANT
BY FALSE PROMISES
Mrs. Quackenbos Charges the Steamship Companies
With Deception.

Washington, March 29.—A woman related today before the house committee on immigration a graphic story of how thousands of poor immigrants were brought to this country from continental Europe by the steamship companies, who, it is alleged, induce them by means of false promises, to leave their European homes and come to America in quest of almost fabulous wealth, only to be thrown upon the charity of a strange country, poverty-stricken, homeless and frequently forced into absolute penance.

The statements were those of Mrs. Mary Quackenbos, a former employee of the department of justice, in which capacity she investigated alleged penance cases in the south. For a year she has been abroad, traveling through Spain, Portugal, Italy, Greece and other countries, at her own expense, studying immigration questions.

The way to stop the great flood of ignorant and penniless immigrants to this country, Mrs. Quackenbos told the committee, was to enact laws that would reach the steamship companies and their agents engaged in the work of inducing undesirable immigrants to come here, for the sake of getting the passage money.

HE USED STATE OFFICE TO FEATHER HIS NEST
Ex-Supervisor of Public Printing Guilty of Grafting.

Columbus, Ga., March 29.—Mark Slater, supervisor of public printing of Ohio from 1901 to 1906, was found guilty of certifying as correct a false voucher for $5,501.25 in common pleas court today. On two other counts of the same indictment he was acquitted. He is liable to a penitentiary sentence of from one to ten years. There are still twelve indictments against him growing out of alleged padded and falsified bills.

This was the second trial of the case, a former jury having disagreed. Slater's attorney will seek another trial and, if overruled, will take steps to appeal the case.

The conviction is the first to result from the legislative probe into state offices. Revelations of other graft have followed. Slater's total thefts from the state are alleged to have amounted to nearly $40,000.

Roddenberry Wars on Red Rot.
Washington, March 29.—(Special.)—Representative Roddenberry is taking active steps to secure a favorable report on his bill to provide for an appropriation of $10,000 to enable the department of agriculture to investigate the cause of and remedies for the disease "red rot" and other diseases of sugar cane.

Negro Girl Suicides.
Dawson, Ga., March 29.—(Special.)—About 10 o'clock Saturday night, Mit Shepherd, a 16-year-old negro girl, committed suicide by shooting herself with a breechloading shotgun. She had been refused permission by her parents to go with a certain suitor, and in consequence she borrowed the weapon with which she put an end to her existence.

BROTHER KILLED BY CORDELE BOY

Accidental Firing of Pistol Has Fatal Result.

Fourteen-Year-Old Brother Is Killed by Milwee Beall, of Cordele—Boy Had Shot at Passer-by Who Had Attacked Dog.

Cordele, Ga., March 29.—(Special.)—A sad accident occurred last night about 9:30 o'clock in East Cordele, when Milwee, the 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Beall, accidentally shot and killed his 14-year-old brother, Reginald, with a .38-caliber pistol at their home.

According to the facts as related by Milwee Beall, some passer-by had shot at his dog, when he and an older brother walked out and returned the fire upon the passer-by, but without effect. Upon reentering the home, at the same time unbreeching the pistol, it was discharged, the ball taking effect directly in the forehead and passing through the brain, lodged against the skull in the rear of the boy's head as he sat upon the floor, death ensuing almost instantly.

Big Tree Discoverer Dead.
Washington, March 29.—News of the death of Galen Clark, the discoverer of the Mariposa big tree, reached Yosemite today. Mr. Clark, who was 95 years old, served as guardian of the Yosemite valley for 29 years and has made it his home for a long period. In view of his long association with this scenic wonder of the United States, the interior department granted permission to bury his body in the valley.

Roosevelt Sends Fatal Bullet.
New York, March 29.—Colonel Roosevelt has presented a bullet which he killed a bull elephant in the Actor's fund fair, which will be held in New York on May 8 to 10.

"I haven't any trophies; the skins are for the National museum, but I am other largely interested in killing a bull elephant. It may be of no use to you, if so throw it away."

IMPORTANT HOTEL CHANGE
Peachtree Inn Now Open to Tourists, Commercial Men and Transients.

An important change in one of Atlanta's hotels was made today when the beautiful Peachtree Inn passed into the control of Mr. Robert D. Edwards, who has been in charge of the hotel since its purchase by him. The hotel, situated on beautiful Peachtree, the most fashionable thoroughfare in the city, where the guests can enjoy all the comforts of home life, away from the smoke and noise of the business center where the hotel is located.

Edwards has thrown open his hotel to tourists and transients, and many commercial men and visitors who expect to remain several days in the city are availing themselves of the privilege of stopping at this popular hotel.

The inn has 140 guest rooms, equipped with steam heat and electric light, with 40 private bath rooms, and is furnished throughout with all the modern hotel conveniences. It is conducted on the American plan with rates of $2.00 per day and up. A special rate is given by the week.

Mr. Edwards is thoroughly overhauling the hotel throughout, installing new art squares, new furniture, redecorating and painting throughout. The inn contains a large, handsome ball room and fine orchestra, which is open to the guests and their friends. When you visit Atlanta alone, or with your wife or other members of your family, you will find it a pleasure to stop at the Peachtree Inn, where Mr. Edwards will be glad to entertain you, with the very best of everything. Electric cars pass directly in front of the hotel, affording easy access to all the theaters, churches and the shopping district.

Further information desired will be furnished by addressing Robert D. Edwards, 391 Peachtree street, Atlanta, Ga.

How's Your Liver?
The natural laxative and antiseptic of the bowels is the bile, which is secreted by the liver. The bile is nature's lubricant. When your liver is torpid it produces less bile, and of course the bowels become clogged with poisonous matter which finds its way into the blood, producing biliousness and constipation and indigestion.

Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills are by far the best remedy to empty the bowels and relieve congested conditions. They act as a true tonic to the liver, preventing as well as curing constipation. One or two of these pills taken every night mildly stimulates the liver and corrects biliousness without the driving purgative effects of harsh drugs. Their gentle laxative action especially commends them to ladies who bloat after eating and are subject to periodical headaches. To secure a healthy secretion of bile, thus establishing perfect bowel regularity, these little pills possess merits peculiarly their own, not found in other remedies. Physicians use and recommend. They form no habit. You should always keep them on hand. These little Vegetable Pills will ward off many ills.

Try This Grand Laxative Free

I am anxious to have every sufferer from constipation, indigestion, liver trouble, sick headache, flatulency and such symptoms of disordered stomach, liver and bowels make a free trial of my laxative tonic, now sold in drug stores for a quarter of a century. I have watched its growth and its progress, and I know that victims of these ailments cannot find a better remedy. Discard cathartic pills, salts and purgatives and try my mild and yet effective method. I will send a free sample bottle of my

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

to anyone, anywhere, who sends name and address. Thousands of people have been helped and cured by this remedy. Read the letters I am daily receiving from grateful cured people. The free sample will prove to you what I here assert, that it is the best cure obtainable for troubles of the stomach, liver and bowels. After using the sample and being convinced, buy it in the regular way of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle. Every member of the family can use it down to the very youngest, as it is mild, pleasant tasting and still effective. I know personally of hundreds of households that are never without it. Those who once use it need no further urging, but I would gladly send every reader of this paper who has never used it a free trial bottle. Let me hear from you.

DR. CALDWELL PERSONALLY WILL BE PLEASED TO GIVE YOU ANY MEDICAL ADVICE YOU MAY DESIRE FOR YOURSELF OR FAMILY PERTAINING TO THE STOMACH, LIVER OR BOWELS, ABSOLUTELY FREE OF CHARGE. EXPLAIN YOUR CASE IN A LETTER AND HE WILL REPLY TO YOU IN DETAIL. FOR THE FREE SAMPLE SIMPLY SEND YOUR NAME AND ADDRESS ON A POSTAL CARD OR OTHERWISE. FOR EITHER REQUEST THE DOCTOR'S ADDRESS IS DR. BIG POSSES SEARCH FOR WHITE FIEND

Girl Found in Terribly Mistreated Condition.

Posses of Armed Officers and Citizens of Kentucky County
Searching for the Man Who Drugged and Mistreated Girl.

Lexington, Ky., March 29.—Posses of officers and citizens of North Middletown, Bourbon county, are searching for an unknown white man who is charged by Nora Brown Rainey, aged 15, the daughter of a prominent farmer, with having drugged and kept her a prisoner in the woods all last night.

The girl was found in a terrible condition early today. Her hair had been cut off and she had been otherwise mistreated.

She became unconscious after telling her story, and her condition is such that she is not expected to recover.

Tigers Hit Hard by Police.
Macon, Ga., March 29.—(Special.)—Three prominent soft drink dealers are to fight charges of keeping intoxicants and selling in violation of the city, tiger ordinance and the state prohibition laws in the police court this week. They were arraigned yesterday, and were given time to prepare for the fight against the charges.

Tariff Agreement Adopted.
Paris, March 29.—The bill approving the Franco-American tariff agreement was adopted unanimously today by the chamber of deputies.

I used your sample bottle and then purchased a large bottle. I have used over half of it and have found great relief. My trouble was constipation, dyspepsia, sour stomach; had the hiccoughs and sometimes I would have an aching on both sides of my face close to my ears and all through my body. The doctor here said I had too much acid in my blood. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the only medicine that gave relief.—Yours truly, Fannie Stuart, Stanton, Va.

The trial bottle of your Syrup Pepsin you sent me at my request I used as per directions. That bottle convinced me that you had an article of merit, as I was relieved of the distressful bloating of the stomach caused by the gas which formed from improper assimilation of the food with the gastric fluids of the stomach. I am now using the third 50-cent bottle and intend to continue until I am satisfied that my stomach has been brought back to its normal condition and performs its duties as nature intended. If our intelligent people knew the qualities that Syrup Pepsin has for regulating stomach troubles and would try your preparation (when they need a remedy for the cure of indigestion) their verdict would be "Thanks be unto Dr. Caldwell."—W. H. Drake, 5140 So. Turner Ave., Chicago, Ill.

I received the sample bottle of Syrup Pepsin and also bought a bottle of my druggist here and used it and I pronounce it all right; just the stuff I needed, and I am just about to get another bottle of it and continue to do so until I am cured.—S. W. HOFFMAN, Artesia, N. Mex.

I will write and let you know I took the sample and it surely helped me, so I bought a 50-cent bottle and I believe it is a good remedy.—FHEBE A. SEAGRAVES, Knox, Ind.

Bond Issue for Santa Fe.

Naturalist Agassiz Dead.
Cambridge, Mass., March 29.—Alexander Agassiz, the eminent naturalist and president of the Calumet and Hecla Mining Company, died yesterday on the steamer Adriatic, Southampton, for New York. The news came in a wireless message from Rodolph Agassiz, his son, to Mr. Henry L. Higginson, of Lee Higginson & Co.

Colonel Levi Weir Dead.
New York, March 29.—The death here yesterday of Colonel Levi C. Weir, president of the Adams Express Company, is the fourth in a remarkable series of deaths of presidents of big express companies. Colonel M. J. O'Brien, president of the Southern Express Company, died September 11; Senator Thomas C. Platt, president of the United States Express Company, died two weeks ago, and last Saturday occurred the death of Colonel Dudley Evans, president of the Wells Fargo Company.

CONSTITUTION PUBLISHING CO.

ATLANTA, GA., March 30, 1910.

The only time a bachelor isn't a hero to the old maid is after he gets married.

Mr. Aldrich's son has married, but the country can't get a divorce from his daddy.

Not only the flour, but the enforcement of the law against it, appears to be bleached.

A distinguished visitor says women in England are very progressive. Ask the stomach-pump!

Once upon a time a sleeping southern railroad turned in its sleep. But it was only a false alarm.

One reason why the government should conserve our water sources is the galloping rate of national prohibition.

A headline reads, "Roosevelt Talks to the Egyptians." Sure! Didn't think they had a chance to talk to him, did you?

Somebody ought to take the rest of those lagged Georgia counties and figuratively glue them on the good roads band wagon.

We are glad to know there was as much as $85,000 in Richmond, even if robbers did have to go to the federal postoffice for it.

If Mr. Buckley, of New York, rained cash, according to press dispatches, we know some people who wouldn't have used umbrellas.

It is intimated the G. O. P. leaders are between the devil and the deep sea, with the tide rising and his canine majesty advancing, pitchfork uplifted.

Congratulations to President Barrett. Always partisan politics has proved the bane of farmers' organizations. In sturdily and with emphasis refusing to let the Farmers' Union be drawn into the maelstrom, he has acted with a sagacity and an intuition that merits the gratitude of the millions of American farmers he serves.

One of the largest and most interesting special automobile editions ever issued by an American newspaper is that recently printed by The Tribune, of Terre Haute, Ind., of which R. S. Carver is president and publisher.

It consists of 136 pages, carrying 535 columns of advertising, of which 135 columns are devoted to advertising automobiles and automobile accessories. It is believed this is the largest amount of automobile advertising ever carried by any newspaper in America, and the man familiar with the national field of publicity understands what such a statement means.

The literary end of the edition is splendidly developed, feature after feature, well illustrated, demonstrating the wonderful evolution of the automobile and the equally wonderful progress it is making in the prosperous middle west.

Mr. Carver is conspicuous among the editors and publishers of the wealthy and populous middle west, as a newspaper and business man of restless and constructive initiative, fine personal and professional standards and clear, sane judgment. He is to be congratulated on an issue remarkable even for that section.

DISFRANCHISEMENT THREATENS MANY FARMERS.

"But what about the farmers? Who is going from door to door reminding them that there are but nine days left in which they can qualify for the next state and county campaign, and put themselves in a position to vote after they learn who the candidates and what the issues are?"

The Macon Telegraph in an editorial reproduced elsewhere thus draws attention to one of the gravest features of the new registration law, under which the registration books close a full six months before election and, inevitably, before the immemorial stimulus of a campaign has safeguarded the voter by reminding him to register.

It has been freely charged that this new registration law was deliberately devised to disfranchise the country vote—the farmers of Georgia, in other words.

The Constitution makes no attempt to pass judgment upon the accuracy of this theory. But, whether inadvertently or by design, the INFALLIBLE TENDENCY OF THIS NEW LAW IS TO AUTOMATICALLY DISFRANCHISE THE WHITE FARMERS OF GEORGIA. ONLY BY REGISTERING ON OR BEFORE APRIL 5 CAN THEY AVERT SUCH A CALAMITY, AS IT APPLIES TO THE ELECTIONS OF THIS YEAR.

In Atlanta, the unprecedented stimulus of the bond election effected a heavy registration, which is good for the entire year.

In the counties specifically rural, not only the awakening influence of a near election is lacking, but the farmer must drive anywhere from a mile to ten miles, consuming a day or portions of a day in the planting season, for qualifying for the constitutionally-guaranteed privilege of the ballot.

That is why, judging from the present status of registration, thousands of white Georgia farmers are threatened with disfranchisement.

No amount of sophistry or specious flub-dub can get around this fact. THE ONLY SAFEGUARD IS TO REGISTER BY APRIL 5, NOW LESS THAN A WEEK OFF.

THEY PREFER SLEEP TO DIVIDENDS.

From the little town of Gilmore, in far-off Idaho, comes this query from a man looking toward the south, bristling with opportunity:

Editor Constitution: I was very much interested in Clark Howell's article in a recent "Collier's," about the south. I do not belong here and AM ANXIOUS TO KNOW MORE OF YOUR PART OF OUR COUNTRY. Will you kindly favor me with some recent issues of The Constitution, looked upon by every one out here as the standard southern newspaper.

W. E. BLAKESLEE.

In that vast territory, west of the Mississippi and straight through to the Pacific Slope, are a million "Blakeslees."

They do not "belong here," and they are equally anxious to "know more of your part of our country."

What are the southern railroads doing to reach these open minds, these ready and waiting prospective southerners?

Virtually nothing!

A few pamphlets, a few casual periodicals, a few desultory, languid letters exhaust the sum total of their energies and their aggressiveness.

In the midst of even these feeble efforts, they frequently desist and fall again on sleep!

In their own interests and in the interests of the territory they pretend to serve it is time to WAKE—AND STAY AWAKE!

Of a part with the inquiry of Mr. Blakeslee is an editorial from The Mansfield (Ga.) Leader, reproduced elsewhere. Our contemporary refers to the enterprise of a southwestern railroad in bombarding the west with the story of southern advantages.

The Leader also refers to the manifold superiorities of the south over the west as a place of residence and a land of opportunity.

The Leader is correct! In cheapness of fertile acres, in abundance of undeveloped country, in industrial, commercial, educational and social facilities and opportunity, THE SOUTH IS TO THE NATION TODAY WHAT THE WEST WAS A GENERATION AGO.

Not a chirp from the languorous southern railroads. They prefer slumber!

SUGGESTED BY THE DEATH OF JUSTICE BREWER

In the hurly-burly of business and of personal worry, who ever stops to consider the near-incalculable mental strain put upon the judges of the United States supreme court—the highest tribunals of the states, for that matter?

In the hands of these men, no longer young, few of them vigorous, rests the responsibility of safeguarding freedom and order in America—for despite quibble and levity, it is upon the constitution that the American scheme of equity in government ultimately rests.

From every state in the union comes up an annual aggregate of scores of appealed causes, involving intricate legal and constitutional issues that have wrinkled the brows of and brought gray hairs to them that sit upon the lesser benches.

In virtually every instance, the clashing contentions go down to the bed-rock of government in America, conceding that the dominion under which we live is finally expressed in the magna charta of the new world.

A malconstruction or a misinterpretation brings maledictions—perhaps precipitate chaos. In any event, the welfare of our institutions in their complicated phases, and the eventual welfare of the people, wait with breath suspended upon the mandate of these white-haired, toiling old men.

And yet, it could not be otherwise. "Old heads for counsel." Years have stricken folly from their blood, have crowned judgment with maturity and precision.

But let us not forget the obligations under which we rest to these truly "elder statesmen."

Infinite temptation dogs their footsteps.

That so few of them have shown unworthy is a lasting inspiration to the man who loves his country.

THE NAVAL PROGRAM.

There is probably no man on the floor of either house of congress better prepared to talk on the affairs of the navy than the gentleman from Alabama, Mr. Hobson.

When the naval bill is up, Mr. Hobson holds the center of the stage. He talks entertainingly and talks well, until he talks war. Then the conservative members of the house look bored, and those with a keener sense of humor grow facetious, and the press of the country says "jingo."

Mr. Hobson is simply a representative of a bad point of view. He is an extremist. Much that he says of the imperative need of preparedness, the navy as a national insurance, the value of an efficient fighting fleet as a protection against war, is an actual and incontrovertible fact.

But when Mr. Hobson tells the country that the little brown men are about to land in the next few minutes on the Pacific coast and after capturing San Francisco and Portland will hold America by the throat, he is an alarmist. When he says Germany may land 100,000 men near Boston, then sweep on to Washington and levy tribute on the nation, he is testing the credulity of a most indulgent public.

The question of how many battleships should be authorized every year is a practical question to be approached in a spirit of broad patriotism and due regard for the future international complications, but it is not necessary that we should become hysterical.

The Old Man's Revenge.
 "What makes the sheriff so grouchy this morning?" queried the inquisitive individual.

"Easy," came back the storekeeper, who knows village gossip as he knows the number of prunes left in the barrel (that is, if they keep prunes in barrels).

"Night before last, the old man got in a shipment, and the sheriff, who had long personal experience with the old man's shipments, prevailed on the express man to let him kindly escort it out to the old man's place."

"Well, did he escort it?" petitioned the inquisitive individual who, like the reader of these lines, was getting impatient.

"He did out to the first thickener," was the answer, "then he quickly developed an affinity for the contents of the shipment."

"Seems to me he had a joke on the old man. I don't see where his revenge comes in," sneered the I. D.

"You always were from Missouri," loftily volunteered the storekeeper;
 "the shipment was old XXXX vinegar, and the sheriff didn't take the jug
 from his lips till he'd swallowed a pint."

(Laughter and applause are now supposed to be in order, and will be vividly appreciated.)

Mary's Little Lamb.
 Mary had a little lamb,
 Its fleece was white as snow,
 Where the lambs know how to butt.

The Sanguine Judge.
 "Next decision I hand down," yawned
 the judge, as he threw a pitcher of cold water in the sleeping bailiff's face, and kicked the code into the lap of a startled old lady, who promptly fell off the bench and yelled "Fire!"

"As I was saying when interrupted," averred the judge, returning to the charge, "next decision I hand down:
 I'm going to make it unlawful for to work in the spring-time. The fish are biting fine, the grass is just long enough to snooze on, my wife is visiting her mother-in-law, and the mint—"

Here a discreet lawyer dropped Blackstone on the floor, "Bang!" The judge fined him $10 and costs for contempt of court, and later remitted it in secret over three fingers, and some pickles, acknowledging his services in preventing a judge from committing himself in a dry county.

A Hero.
 "Who's a hero?" asked the maiden.
 As she pursued her lips so fair,
 And he answered as he kissed her,
 "When he will not take a dare."

April 5 Registration to Close;
 To Forget Is to Be Penalized.

(From The Macon Telegraph.)
 The registration books are to close on April 5. Those who do not register on or before that day will be penalized —disfranchised—by this six-months-before law.

The town folks are registering rapidly. Judging from the reports to The Telegraph, there were busy times yesterday in the various tax collectors' offices in the towns and cities in Georgia. They were registering the town and city folk.
 That is comparatively easy with those who live within a short walk of the tax collectors' offices.

But what about the farmers? Who is going from door to door reminding them that there are but nine days left in which they can qualify for the next state and county campaign, and put themselves in a position to vote after they learn who the candidates and what the issues are?

It is easy for the town man to register.
 Somebody reminds him of it, and he has only a short walk to take. In the country, where the farmer lives, he must register up to within ten days usually, not longer than thirty days, of the election. Not so with the farmer. He must register six months before the election—before he knows who the candidates and what the issues are. He must register during the days of political stagnation, and is apt to forget about it. He is the man that is going to be disfranchised, if anybody.

And yet, oh ye gods and little fishes, we are told that this six-months-before registration law was created for the purpose of disfranchising the "hobo vote," the "railroad ringsters" and the "city bums and toughs!"

But tell it in Gath, and publish it in the streets of Askelon, that the farmers are getting wiser, and that they, too, are going to get their names on the books, in spite of it all.

UNIONISTS LOSE OUT
 In Fight for Cumberland Presbyterian Property.

Nashville, Tenn., March 29.—Judge Sanford, of the United States district court, today handed down two important decisions in the litigation over the Cumberland Presbyterian property between the Loyals and Unionists.

In both of these cases he holds that the United States court has no jurisdiction. By one of them, the petition of the Unionists seeking recovery of the publishing house in this city is dismissed, and by the others the petition seeking to vest the title to Grace church, this city, in the Unionists, is dismissed.

Following this decision, the Cumberlandists filed a bill in the chancery court against the Unionists for the recovery of the Grace church property.

Verdict Won.
 Macon, Ga., March 29.—(Special.)—Mrs. J. B. Edwards won a verdict in her insurance claim here this afternoon in the city court for the amount of $3,000 and the interest she sought on the life of her husband. The fight against the payment was made because he committed suicide.

Wreck Near Tampa.
 Tampa, Fla., March 29.—A south-bound passenger train on the Atlantic Coast Line ran into an open switch near Loughman last night. The engine was wrecked, and the passengers seriously injured, but the passengers escaped with a shaking-up. The engine was wrecked. Traffic was delayed eight hours.

Railroad Agent Killed.
 Montgomery, Ala., March 29.—At Florida, Ala., last night James Garrett, agent for the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, was shot and killed by Charles Burgess, a well-known citizen. Burgess, who is under arrest, declines to discuss the tragedy of the two men who have been on intimate terms.

Senate Adjourns for Brewer.
 Washington, March 29.—At 1:15 p. m. on motion of Senator Curtis of Kansas, the senate adjourned out of respect to the memory of Justice Brewer. Senator Bailey objected to adjournment on the ground that it would establish a bad precedent.

STOP-OVERS IN HANDS OF SOUTHERN ALONE

—E. L. Rhodes

That the Southern Railway Company can, in and of itself, get for Atlanta stop-over privileges on every road entering the city, is the substance of an interview given out by Ernest L. Rhodes, wholesale milliner, yesterday. With the Southern in line, Mr. Rhodes says that the other roads would follow of their own accord with little or no delay.

Possibly no other man in the city is so well posted in the matter of stop-overs as is Mr. Rhodes, who has made a study of the subject as it affects the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, of which he is a member. He has written scores of letters to the various road officials relative to the matter and has received in reply communications making almost every conceivable excuse for not granting the privileges.

However, as a result of Mr. Rhodes' efforts, the matter was taken up at a meeting of the Southeastern Passenger Association in New Orleans some time ago and was finally referred to the executive officers of the various roads to act individually.

"Since this action," said Mr. Rhodes, "we do not necessarily have to deal with all the roads. The South-

POINTED QUESTIONS TO THE SLEEPING RAILROADS

(From The Mansfield, Ga. Leader.)
 An enterprising southwestern railroad is bombarding the enormous southern and western circulation of The Tri-Weekly Constitution with advertisements, the preamble to one of which is:

"Let me tell you about farms worth two—farms ready to work for you. Two or three crops a year from the sunny effort and intelligent energy you have been devoting to farming or office and factory routine."

This specific advertisement, veracious in its entirety, happens to be about farms in Louisiana.

What about equally cheap farms, farms equally productive, in Georgia or any other state?

With the sole exception of sugar, Georgia produces everything raised in Louisiana. Our superiority is marked, both naturally and because the boll-wool has not yet reached the state.

We broach no quarrel, except that of friendly rivalry, between southern states. We are, however, concentrating our heavy guns on the eastern and western states, with their annually discontented thousands studiously seeking homes under more promising conditions.

To this class the railroads of the south should speak in clear accents; not once, but with such intelligence, emphasis and persistence as will eventually pin the attention of the most casual reader.

To accomplish this end, it is essential that the railroads, all and singular, approach the element of change in a change of attitude, and eastern papers and southern papers with eastern and western circulation.

Equally with the railroads, the onus and the opportunity confront the southern real estate firms.

It is encouraging to observe that these latter, or at least many of the more enterprising, are dealing effective blows in the campaign of development.

Synonymous with the term "southern states" is the word "opportunity." The railroads, the business firms and the commercial organizations of the south must carry that fact to the nation.

OLD WORLD COURT GOSSIP

By Marquis De Fontenay

(Copyright, 1910, for The Constitution.)
 Every reader of the novels of Sir Walter Scott will recall the story of the Colquhoun, the Laird of Luss, and chief of the historic and powerful Clan of Colquhoun, as the principal foe of Rob Roy, in the Waverley novel of that name. In fact, Sir Walter Scott's novel, "Rob Roy," is almost entirely devoted to the feuds and wars waged between Rob Roy, the chief of the Macgregors, and Sir Humphrey, chief of the Clan of Colquhoun. The accession, therefore, of Captain Ian Colquhoun, of the Scots Guards, to the chieftainship of the great Clan of Colquhoun, as twenty-eighth Laird of Luss, and as chieftain of all the Colquhouns, through the death of his father, Sir Alan Colquhoun, the thirteenth baronet of the line, cannot fail to excite a certain amount of attention in this country, where the Clan has a number of representatives.

Some are Called Calhoun.
 Some of them, however, no longer bear the name of Colquhoun, but that of Calhoun, and some also that of Gahn. It seems that Sir Alexander Colquhoun had three sons, John, the first baronet, and William and George. William and George are vaguely described in the various British peerages as having "died abroad, without posterity." This is unreliable. For in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, when means of communication between the various countries were difficult at the best, it was found impossible at home to keep track of the younger sons of patrician families who had left for foreign lands in search of adventure and fortune.

Consequently, when last sight of them was usually set down as having "died abroad without posterity."

Swedish records, however, show that William and George Colquhoun, younger sons of Sir Alexander, entered the service of King Gustavus Adolphus of Sweden, fought under his command during the Thirty Years' War, and afterwards settled in Sweden. George died without issue, but William married and left a family of children, the eldest of whom, Peter, became Chamberlain to the Royal Duke Carl of Södermanland, and died in 1633. The name of Colquhoun is pronounced in Scotland and in England as "Cohoon," and under the circumstances it is not astonishing that in course of time the name came to be written in Sweden as "Kahoon," which became corrupted into "Gahoon," and finally into "Gahn."

One of the branches of these Swedish Colquhouns or Gahns, directly descended from Peter Colquhoun, is now settled in America, and one of its members, Henrik Gahn, holds an office under the United States government at Washington. The Gahns of Sweden have for nearly 200 years always made use of the armorial bearings of the Scotch House of Colquhoun, with the sanction of the Swedish Crown and Court of Heraldry, which, as in other monarchical countries of the Continent, Europe, is extremely strict about such matters.

Vicuna Irritated by Mrs. Smith.
 It is difficult to convey any idea of the irritation which prevails at the court of Vienna, and especially among the members of the reigning house, against the Scotchman, James Henry Smith, of New York. It is claimed at the court of Vienna that the widow of the New York multi-millionaire, who used to be known as "Silent Smith," gave a distinct and solemn promise to the royal and imperial relatives of Prince Miguel of Braganza that she would pay all his debts in full on the occasion of his wedding. It was on this distinct understanding that the prince's aunt, Archduchess Marie Therese of Austria, and his other relatives gave their consent to the match.

Mrs. Smith's failure to fulfill her pledges, and her refusal to furnish funds or anything beyond a mere composition with his creditors, which the latter have rejected, is denounced as an act of bad faith; and, while Dom Miguel has been forbidden by the emperor, and by his cousin, the heir presumptive, Archduke Francis Ferdinand, to return to Austria until all his debts are paid in full, and has thus been rendered an exile from the land of his birth, where his family have found refuge, hospitality, and the most distinguished treatment after his expulsion from Portugal, Dom Miguel's American wife, the former Miss Anita Stewart, and her mother, Mrs. James Henry Smith, find themselves cut off, probably forever, from all those social advantages in Europe which they had expected to secure through this extraordinary marriage.

Sensational Divorce Case.
 In the somewhat sensational divorce trial which has just taken place in London between Captain Henry Steward Surtees, of the Coldstream Guards, and his rich Scotch wife, and which was decided in the latter's favor, the fact was brought to light that during a stay in Paris the captain had taken his wife to the Folies Bergeres, to Maxim's and to a number of other places of entertainment of a peculiar order, with the object of showing her certain phases of Parisian life.

As it is quite a common thing for English and American people of unimpeachable respectability to take their wives, sisters and female relations generally to these places, in order to gratify their curiosity, it is just as well to point out that the English or American woman who visits resorts of this kind in Paris lowers the prestige of her country in foreigners' eyes, and that her male relative who takes her there shows himself to be singularly lacking in good taste, breeding and in knowledge of the world.

No respectable Frenchman would take his wife, his sister or his daughter to such places; just in the same way that he would never dream of permitting the "Rire," and those other improper expressions sometimes witty, to be introduced into the conversation of his house, or to come under the eyes of the women of his family.

Where State Loses Out by West Point Stock Issue.

As a result of the authorization of the railroad commission of the issue of $1,232,000 additional stock by the Atlanta and West Point Railroad Company the state will be deprived in future of taxes on that amount of debentures, or the portion of them at least owned and held in Georgia.

It has never been strenuously denied that the debenture, a certificate of indebtedness or an acknowledgment of the debt of the road that it is indebted to the extent of $100 to the holder, was taxable property.

Up to about seven years ago the Georgia Railroad Company, which owned $38,0

EYEGASSES THAT STAY ON

Many people have trouble in keeping eyeglasses on, specially in warm weather. We have given this point careful study, and have had long, practical experience. Although we have every style of guard and device of value made for holding eyeglasses in place, we sometimes find it necessary to specially design guards, in particularly difficult cases. It is seldom that we find a person whom we cannot fit satisfactorily with nose-glasses.

We are perfectly equipped for examining the eyes for glasses, and prescribing and grinding the right lenses.

CITY NEWS

Birth of Daughter.—Mr. and Mrs. Drew Jones, of 353 Pulliam street, are being congratulated upon the birth of a daughter.

Young Couple Fined.—The matrimonial troubles of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Howard, a young married couple, of 51 Bradley avenue, were aired in the recorder's court yesterday afternoon. Deciding that they were both partly to blame, Judge Broyles fined them $5 each and advised them to go home and make up.

Soldiers' Home Entertainment.—The regular monthly entertainment will be held at the Soldiers' home this afternoon. Miss Janie Laird will recite and Mrs. Howard Winburn will have charge of the music. All interested in the work are cordially invited to attend and requested to take the car which leaves the city at 3 o'clock.

Fish Found Guilty.—Carlton Fish, charged with film-flaming several moving picture cashiers, was convicted of simple larceny yesterday in Judge Calhoun's court. He will be sentenced today. Fish is one of the cleverest men at his game seen around Atlanta for some time. His system is founded on a close study of human nature and requires some knowledge of psychology—so he says.

For Second Ward School.—The committee appointed to make a report on a suitable site for the new school in the second ward has about decided that the best location is a lot at the corner of Georgia avenue and Forsyth street. The lot is very large, and just where the committee thinks the new school should be located.

Montgomery Found Guilty.—Ben Montgomery, indicted in December last for robbing the postoffice at White Hall, in White county, was arraigned in the United States district court yesterday before Judge Newman, was found guilty and sentenced to a term of two years in the federal prison at Atlanta and to pay a fine of $100.

Theater Opening Indefinite.—The stockholders of the new theater on Forsyth street met yesterday morning, elected directors and adjourned. The directors will hold a meeting in the near future. No date for the opening of the house has been announced. Jake Well said after the meeting that a stock company would play at the Lyric during the summer up to August.

Conservation Measures to Be Fought.—Washington, March 29.—A speech in the senate today by Senator Chamberlain, of Oregon, in support of the land withdrawal bill, the first of the president's conservation measures, served to elicit from other senators a number of remarks of a sufficiently varied character to justify the prediction that the conservation bills would be vigorously resisted when their consideration is reached.

PARK MATTERS ARE ACTED UPON

Bids Asked for Grading and Paving Driveway.

Widening of Cherokee Avenue Is Recommended to Council. Brisbane Park to Be Used for Baseball Ground—Several Important Petitions Disposed.

A large delegation of citizens appeared before the park commission yesterday afternoon on the widening of Cherokee avenue and the maintaining of a baseball ground in Brisbane park.

The commission held a called session and transacted a great deal of important business.

In reference to the improvement of Piedmont park, the general manager stated that he had received three letters from the landscape artist, Olmsted Bros., of Brookline, Mass. In one letter the complaint was made that Mr. Kauffman, the engineer in Atlanta, had failed so far to make certain corrections in the topographical survey of the park. The commission adopted a resolution giving Mr. Kauffman fifteen days in which to do the work.

On motion of Councilman Evans, the general manager was instructed to ask for bids for the grading and paving of that portion of the driveway in Piedmont park opposite Fourteenth street.

On motion of Mr. Cochran, $75 was appropriated to get a topographical map of Oakland City park, and $40 for swings.

A petition from employees of the Southern railway shops asking that they be allowed to use Brisbane park for a baseball ground was granted. It was shown that the park could also be used for a children's playground.

A petition from citizens asking that the commission recommend to council the widening of Cherokee avenue by making a driveway all along the western boundary of Grant park was granted.

A request from Shelley Ivey asking that the baseball ground in Piedmont park be used by certain local baseball clubs this summer was referred to the general manager and president, with power to act. There was said to be about eighty baseball teams that want the same grounds, and they all want the place on Saturday afternoons at 3 o'clock.

Track Teams Want Park. A petition by track teams to have the use of the paddock in Piedmont park on April 16 was referred to the general manager and the president.

The general manager stated he had ascertained that the hygienic drinking fountains would cost $21.15 each. Five are to be placed in Grant park and one in Howell park. The matter was referred to the finance committee with power to act.

A resolution was adopted requesting the council to appropriate $200 for the purchase of a short while ago and left his family in destitute circumstances. A motion was adopted for the finance committee to expend $110 for a matting to be placed on the floors of the Cyclone.

The commission will meet again next Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

THE WEATHER TODAY:

RAIN IS PROMISED

Forecaster Makes a Prediction With View of Aiding the Gardeners.

The weather man graciously promised rain for today. This forecast has made with especial reference to the needs of the gardeners, and perhaps was induced by the fact that Mr. Von Herrmann himself has some very fine radishes in his garden that he wants to see big enough to eat.

He will tell you the reason the rain is due to reach Atlanta today is because "a marked area of low atmospheric pressure or storm is central over western Nebraska," and that "it will move northward in such proximity as to affect Atlanta and vicinity."

There will also be colder weather toward the end of the week. It will be just moderately cold, however, so if the temperature seems several degrees below zero, merely attribute it to the law of contrast, as the past few days have been unusually warm for this season of the year.

"Anything to keep cool," said the Gopher, now that the warm spring days are here: "Let's go out to East Lake and take a boat ride," suggested a young man to his lady friend last Sunday afternoon.

That sounded cool, so they caught a car and were soon on the lake. "Let me row," asked the lady, before they had gone very far. "Why, certainly!" exclaimed the fellow as he began to get a little warm in the collar. "Why didn't I think at first to ask you? You wouldn't like to row?" Whether she liked it or not, she had to row him all over the lake, and our friend sat back and enjoyed it until finally he remembered a date that compelled her to come to the city at once.

HE TOOK FIVE MINUTES TO ANSWER ONE QUESTION

Federal Prisoner Always Says a Prayer Before Making Answer.

Among the nearly 800 inmates in the United States prison near Atlanta, there are four or five near-insane ones—just a little "loony"—not crazy enough to be confined in the asylum for the insane, but sufficiently off to require special attention at times.

As a rule, they are crazy on the subject of religion, talk on religious subjects and quote freely from the Bible. An amusing story is told of one of them by Dr. A. L. Fowler, the federal prison physician. This particular crazy prisoner has the habit of failing or refusing to answer any question put to him, or to converse with anyone until he has first "crossed his heart" and said a prayer, often one of some length.

Not long ago the man had some slight ailment which necessitated the attention of the physician. Dr. Fowler was aware of his peculiarity, so the day after when he saw him he asked him how he was feeling; then went about some other business, returning in about five minutes to see what he would have to say.

As the doctor approached the second time, the man arose from his knees, crossed himself again and replied to the question asked him five minutes before:

"I am now at peace with my God; I feel better today, thank you."

THANKS ARE EXTENDED FOR EASTER EGG HUNT

Press of City, Committee, Musicians and Contributors Are All Kindly Remembered.

The park commission, yesterday afternoon, adopted a resolution thanking those who helped to make the big Easter egg hunt a success. The hunt this year was given by the city through the park commission, it was thought proper to give credit to those who helped to make the arrangements.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted: "Resolved, That the park commission, hereby extends its thanks to the press of Atlanta for giving valuable assistance to make the Easter egg hunt, which was given this year under the auspices of the commission, a great success; to the committee of arrangements and especially to Chairman J. O. Cochran, who worked arduously for the success of the entertainment; to the musicians who furnished music for the occasion free of charge, and to the citizens and merchants who contributed liberally to the fund."

$25,000 SALE FOR GRAND OPERA

Second Day's Sale Reaches $5,000 Point.

Andrew Dippel, of the Metropolitan Grand Opera Company, Sends Telegram of Congratulation to the Atlanta Directors.

Surpassing the expectations even of the most sanguine, the second day's sale of tickets to Atlanta's week of grand opera in May passed the $5,000 mark yesterday, making a total for the two days of approximately $15,000. The ticket sellers at the offices of the Cable Piano Company and Phillips & Crew were kept busy through the greater part of the second day.

In addition to the actual cash received there have been received a number of applications for reservations, both in Atlanta and from other points in Georgia and the south, and while it is very probable that all of these seats will be taken they have not been figured among the actual cash sales.

That Atlanta set a new record for the first day's sale of grand opera tickets was attested by the following telegram which was sent by Andrew Dippel, administrative manager of the Metropolitan Opera Company, after he had been notified that $19,000 worth of tickets had been sold on the first day:

"New York, March 29.

"Atlanta Music Festival Association.

Atlanta, Ga.

"Accept our heartiest congratulations on the magnificent showing of yesterday, which conclusively demonstrates that Atlanta has kept pace with the great development of musical art in this country. Your city ranks foremost by its generous support of our great enterprise, and in its keen appreciation of the very best they have to offer."

"ANDREAS DIPPEL."

OFFERED HIS LANDLADY PAWN TICKET FOR BOARD

She Turned His Case Over to the Associated Charities.

John Burt, who is now at police barracks, charged with larceny after trust, has evolved a most unusual method of paying a delinquent board bill, and though his unique method did not succeed, it deserves commendation as an entirely new idea. To pay his board, he offered to his landlady the equity in a pawn ticket which he held in lieu of articles that he is charged with stealing from a former landlady.

The humor of the situation, however, did not appeal to the financial peripatetic of the second landlady's mind. With provoking obduracy she refused to accept the pawn ticket instead of the perfectly good money that she wanted, and brought the man's case to the attention of the Associated Charities. Secretary Logan found Burt was a wife and three children; that he was without funds, and with no work. A place was secured for him and for his wife and three children, and he was sent to the city of New York.

$20,000 to Be Spent on Tract North of Ponce de Leon Avenue.

Committee Inspects Profile for Extension of Ala. St. to West Side.

With the purchase yesterday of ten acres of land on Highland avenue, just north of Ponce de Leon avenue, final arrangements for the laying out of a residence section just across Moreland avenue from Druid Hills, were completed. The section to be opened will contain slightly more than 15 acres, on which more than $20,000 will be spent in beautification.

The newly purchased property adjoins a lot of more than seven acres, now the property of Mr. Cheshire, and the two plots will be joined in what will be one of the city's most beautiful residence sections. Moreland avenue will be extended north from St. Charles avenue to the Kimballville farm, and numerous other improvements will be made on the property. The promoters announce that they will spend more than $20,000 in beautifying the place.

The work of improvement will be begun in the immediate future.

GORTATOWSKY LEAVES FOR BIRMINGHAM NEWS

Popular Newspaper Man Resigns City Editorship of Atlanta Georgian.

J. D. Gortatowsky, city editor of The Atlanta Georgian, has resigned his position on that paper and left last night for Birmingham, where he has accepted the position of city editor of The Birmingham News.

Mr. Gortatowsky's home is in Albany, and he began his newspaper career as a reporter on The Constitution about five years ago. For the past four he has been connected with The Georgian in the capacity of city hall reporter until he was appointed city editor several months ago.

Mr. Gortatowsky is one of the brightest and most popular young newspaper men in Atlanta. He has made himself extremely popular both in and out of the newspaper profession, and his host of friends in this city wish him unbounded success in his new location.

SOCIETY

MUCH ENTHUSIASM SHOWN BY THE PLAYERS' CLUB

Members of the Players' Club have never entered into their work as actors with more enthusiasm than is shown in the daily rehearsals now in progress with "Court Cards" and "In His Professional Capacity," as the double vehicle for the display of their talents. These rehearsals are held either at the Capital City Club or the Piedmont Driving Club, and though they are in the midst of social pleasures, the players engaged in the work never for a moment allow their attention to be withdrawn from the plays.

The plot of "Court Cards" is intensely absorbing and many of the situations are productive of genuine comedy, but as usual, all the wrinkles over which the several pairs of young lovers are kept stumbling in the first act are smoothed away in the last, and the last curtain descends on a scene of happiness, even including the duchess and her troopers.

This play will be presented at the Grand on April 11, to be preceded by the one-act curtain-raiser of Mrs. Lella Burton Wells, who will take the leading feminine role in her own play.

After-Easter Gaieties Begin.

The Easter gaities have begun with a series of interesting entertainments, and each day this week the social calendar shows interesting social events. On Easter day, Mrs. J. B. Whitehead was at home informally to a group of her friends at tea time. Her hospitable home was fragrant with flowers, and bright with lights, and the party numbered twenty-five guests. In the drawing room the decorations were in Easter lilies and white azaleas. In the dining room the table, from which dainty refreshments were served, had as centerpiece a tall basket filled with kaiserling roses. The same flowers were on the mantel and serving table. In the hallway there were pink azaleas and Killarney roses.

Mrs. Whitehead wore over white satin a lingerie gown of white mull embroidered and applied in Valenciennes lace.

Miss Wheat, who served tea, wore a dainty toilet in white voile, embroidered and trimmed in Irish lace.

Last night the first of the larger after-Easter entertainments was the dance at which Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Congdon entertained in honor of Miss Mary Wharton Thurston.

The scene of the bright occasion was the Piedmont Driving Club. There were 200 guests invited at 9 o'clock, these including fifty of the married set and 150 of the unmarried set. The clubhouse was beautifully decorated, the decorations carrying out the Easter colors of yellow and white expressed in Easter lilies and daffodils.

In the living room, where Mr. and Mrs. Congdon and the receiving party were, the decorations were in fern, banded on the mantel around vases filled with daffodils. In the music room were lilies, and in the hallway potted lilies were gracefully arranged with palms, a bank of the lilies at the base of the stairway. In the palm room, where punch was served, there was a bower of flowers, with a background of palms and potted plants showing white flowers.

In the ball room the same scheme prevailed, the Easter lily the feature of the decoration.

Dancing was enjoyed until 11 o'clock, when supper was served. The guests were seated at small tables in the main dining room, each table having as centerpiece a basket filled with either the lilies or the daffodils. The candlesticks had yellow shades, and the bonbons and loaves were in yellow. Souvenirs of the occasion were dainty dance cards, ornate with the monogram of the host in gold letters. After supper the dancing continued.

Mrs. Congdon was a gracious hostess, and wore a pale gray satin gown, with overdress of white net embroidered in silver. Miss Thurston was a picture of girlish beauty, attired in pale blue satin, with overdress of white chiffon painted in delicately tinted flowers. Mrs. Holderness wore a black crepe de chine gown trimmed in baby Irish lace.

In the receiving party were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Dancy, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stearnes, Captain and Mrs. Preston Brown.

Mrs. Harry Atkinson wore a white satin gown, with coat of gold lace. Mrs. Edward C. Peters wore a lavender chiffon gown, embroidered. Mrs. F. B. Dancy wore a white Olga crepe gown draped in chiffon and embroidered in pearls. Mrs. Milton Dargan wore a lilac silk gown, veiled in net embroidered in crystals. Mrs. Walter Stearnes wore a pink chiffon gown embroidered in silver. Mrs. Preston Brown wore a rose-colored satin gown.

Miss Eliza Dancy wore a white embroidered crepe gown. Miss Laura Payne wore a pink chiffon cloth embroidered in crystals. Miss Helen Payne wore a silk gown showing rich tones in Persian colors, with tunic of blue net; the corsage embroidered in silver. Miss Cora Wynn wore a dancing gown of white marquisette, embroidered in silver.

Miss Edna McCandless wore a white lace gown with a touch of gold about the corsage.

Miss May Atkinson wore a dancing gown in pale blue charmeuse satin embroidered in gold.

Miss Sarah Rawson was beautifully gowned in pale blue net, with tunic of blue net; the corsage embroidered in silver. Miss Harriett Calhoun was one of the handsomest young women present, wearing white chiffon and lace.

Dinner to Mr. and Mrs. Chase.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Little entertained at dinner last evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Chase, of Hartford, Conn., the guests of Mr. Thomas Eggleston. The congenial party included, besides Mr. and Mrs. Chase, Mr. and Mrs. John Grant, Mrs. Charles A. Conklin, Miss Dooly, Mr. Thomas Eggleston, Mr. W. E. Chapin and Mrs. S. Y. Tupper.

Mrs. Julian Field's Luncheon.

A delightful occasion of yesterday was the luncheon at which Mrs. Julian Field entertained in honor of her sister, Mrs. McClung, of Knoxville, who was Miss Barbara Adair. The guests assembled at 1:30 o'clock and were received by the hostess in the living room, in the receiving party being Mrs. McClung and Mrs. Adair.

An elegant menu was daintily served, the guests served in informal groups in the living room, dining room and the hallway. The entire house, in exquisite decoration, suggested a bower of spring flowers, each apartment having different colored fragrant flowers in charming arrangement. In the living room daffodils were used. In the hallway and library, flowering almond and wisteria.

In the living room the color note was pink, reflected in branches of the always beautiful peach blossoms. Branches were on the mantel, buffet and serving table, while the azalea marking the center of the table had flowers reflecting the color of the peach blossoms. The candlesticks had shades of pink, and the bonbons and loaves were in that color.

The occasion was a most happy one, giving a large number of Mrs. McClung's friends the opportunity of welcoming her to her old home. She wore an elegant toilet of black charmeuse satin, embroidered in the Persian colors.

Mrs. Field was handsome in a white marquisette gown trimmed in point lace, and embroidered in silver.

Mrs. Adair wore a black charmeuse satin, the corsage lightened by a trimming of point lace.

Mrs. Bucknell's Luncheon.

Mrs. Howard Bucknell will give an elegant luncheon at the Piedmont Driving Club today, her guests, invited at 1:30 o'clock, to include: Mrs. Albert Howell, Mrs. Clark Howell, Mrs. Frank Hawkins, Mrs. Henry Johnson, Jr., Mrs. Norwood Mitchell, Mrs. William Lawson, Mrs. John Marshall Slaton, Mrs. John W. Grant, Mrs. William H. Kiser, Mrs. George Russ, Mrs. Urie Atkinson, Mrs. Phinley Calhoun, Mrs. Junius Oglesby, Jr., Mrs. Preston Ackwright, Mrs. John Hill, Mrs. Edward Peters, Mrs. Henry Jackson, Mrs. Lea Newman, Mrs. Floyd W. News of Interest at Allen's Another Attractive Sale of Tailor-Made Suits $25.00

They are this season's best Spring models—in truth, they have only arrived this week.

There are 200 of them, and the first marking is about a third less than they were bought to sell for.

The selling intention was $35.00. Their own worth, plainly "written all over them," would suggest that price.

But the South is getting back her reputation for sunniness and, being cheerful subjects, we gladly make the concession in your favor.

These Suits are the accepted plain tailored kind, of handsome fabrics, including a few trimmed effects—where the color charm is heightened by the influence of the French touch.

Colors, besides solid black, are navy blue, and other blues, black and white checked, light tan and grays, gray mixtures, and a few of white serge and natural pongee.

They radiate smartness, cleverness, elegance.

You are lucky to live in the South. You could not buy such a Suit in the North for this price. They are

Mrs. Brown's Luncheon.

Mrs. Edward T. Brown entertained twelve young women at luncheon yesterday in honor of her lovely young daughter, Miss Marjorie Brown, and Miss Fannett, of New York, the guest of Mrs. Frederick Hodgson.

The table had as centerpiece a pink azalea, and the accessory decorations were in that color. The place cards were painted in a design of Easter lilies.

Mrs. Heard Here.

Mrs. Eugene Heard, of Rose Hill, Middleton, Ga., who is in the city to attend the meeting of the State Library Association, is one of the busiest women in Georgia. Mrs. Heard not only works in the various lines of organized effort, in which Georgia women are doing efficient work, but she works as the individual. She was the first woman in the south to establish free circulating libraries, and her work grew into what is now a far-reaching system. Her home, Rose Hill, is a veritable little principality, and in it is combined all the hospitality which marked the life of the "old south" and makes brilliant that of the "new south." And the spirit of her hospitality extends far out of the home into the humbler homes of the farm tenantry of both races.

Last year she established a school for the industrial training of negroes on the Heard plantations, and the new school, when built, will stand a monument to the ante-bellum slaves of the Heard plantations, which have been kept in successful operation since the war.

In connection with the school Mrs. Heard had a little industrial fair for her negro employees, and offered prizes for the best exhibits of farm products. The venture proved a most stimulating one to the employees. Mrs. Heard hopes to develop the movement still farther.

In the flower gardens of the members of the executive board of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, blooms the prettiest little rose bush which Mrs. Heard presented to her guests when, last fall, she entertained the entire board at Rose Hill. The roses were potted and encased in yellow paper, and are treasures of their kind.

While in the city Mrs. Heard will be the recipient of many attentions. She is the guest of Mrs. E. G. McCabe, and will be the guest of honor at the reception at Carnegie library this afternoon.

Reading, Selected—Miss Nelson. Roll Call, "Other Women of Scotland."

Mrs. Bucknell's Tea.

A happy introduction of the Easter social season was the afternoon tea given yesterday by Mrs. Howard Bucknell at the Piedmont Driving Club. Her guests were assembled at 5 o'clock in the living room, which was decorated with palms, white tall vases of Easter lilies on the mantel were seasonal and beautiful.

Mrs. Bucknell was a picture of youthful loveliness in a black oiga crepe gown with panels and sleeves of black lace over gold net, the white lace yoke bordered with gold beads. Her picture hat was of black lace with a half wreath of yellow roses.

Her mother, Mrs. Cornelia Cunningham, wore a silver gray gown with a drapey in black lace and a black flower toque. Her sister, Mrs. W. A. Graham, wore champagne-colored cloth with a finish in rose color, and her leghorn hat was trimmed with roses.

Delicious refreshments were served in the loggia, the guests being seated in groups of six and eight at tables decorated in yellow. Each centerpiece was a crystal basket filled with daffodils, the handle tied with yellow tulle, and around each table the chatting groups of women, in their spring gowns and hats laden with plumes and flowers, made a picturesque scene.

Among the guests, Mrs. Britton, of Reading, Pa., who is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Algood Holmes, was dressed in black lace with an over-dress of black lace, and her black hat was trimmed with plumes.

Mrs. Joseph M. Brown wore rose-colored satin, with an embroidery of rose and gold, and her leghorn hat was trimmed with roses.

The bridge party given yesterday by West Peachtree street was a delightful affair, and a compliment to her guest, Mrs. Herbert Cartwright, of New Decatur, Ala.

Green and white were the colors in an artistic scheme of decoration. The score cards were Easter lilies, and lilies formed the centerpiece of a prettily appointed table in the dining room, its silver candlesticks having candles filling silver dishes.

The bridge prizes were original sepia etchings, one of the Driving Club and a street scene in Atlanta, the charming work of the hostess. They were won by Mrs. Sims Bray and Mrs. Walter Stearns, and the guest of honor was presented a hat pin. On each table was a "chance" which was cut for as a souvenir.

A number of callers joined the players at 5 o'clock, and delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Scott was crowned in green silk tissue and lace over green satin, and Mrs. Cartwright wore a charming toilet of blue charmeuse, with an overdress of blue chiffon bordered with pink roses.

Rehearsal Supper.

Dr. and Mrs. John Grant Wilkins entertained at buffet supper last night in compliment to Miss Lella Richardson and Lieutenant John H. Hester, whose marriage takes place tonight.

The occasion was a delightful one, assembling the bridemaids and groomsmen after the rehearsal.

The table in the dining room had an artistic decoration in violets, these flowers forming the letters "R" and "H," and the platters were garnished with violets.

Mrs. Wilkins was becomingly crowned in black jetted net, and Miss Richardson wore pink messaline and lace.

Mrs. Amsden's Tea.

A handsome reception yesterday, assembling a large number of callers, was that given by Mrs. Lyman J. Amsden, at her home on North Boulevard, in compliment to her daughter, Mrs. Sidney McMichael, of Toronto, Canada, and quantities of spring flowers decorated the house and groups of prettily dressed women in the several reception apartments assisted in entertaining.

Easter lilies, Killarney roses, and jonquils were used with palms in tasteful arrangement in all the rooms, and in the dining room where delicious refreshments were served, pink was the prevailing color. The table centerpiece was a vase of Killarney roses, the silver candelabra had pink shades, and the candles and ices were pink.

Mrs. Amsden was crowned in champagne-colored voile and gold lace. Mrs. McMichael wore white crepe de chine embroidered in gold and trimmed with princess lace. Mrs. Ball was crowned in white mull, elaborate with lace and embroidery.

Mrs. O. C. Fuller served coffee, Misses Marie Cobb, Elizabeth Denman and Martha Crane served punch, and others assisting in entertaining were: Mrs. L. P. Stephens, Mrs. J. Le Vin, Mrs. G. W. Lloyd, Mrs. A. McD. Wilson, Mrs. William King, Mrs. Hamilton Douglas, Mrs. Robert Zahner, Mrs. Thomas Morgan, Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. John L. Tye, Mrs. J. N. Eberman, Mrs. Scott Hudson, and Mrs. E. P. Cobb. Serving in the dining room were Mrs. Guy Mitchell, Mrs. Russell Bridges, Mrs. Carl King, Mrs. Guy Woolford, Miss Cleveland Zahner, Miss Myrtle Tye and Miss Bessie Weisiger.

Pretty Gingham Dresses

Pretty gingham Dresses, fashioned of Barnaby zephyrs by New York suit makers.

They're all ready to slip into. And the first sight of them will make almost any woman want to try each style of dress on. The one-piece style prevails, and variety is introduced in matter of design in several ways.

Lace net yokes, heavy lace vests, bands of insertion, piping and tucks are the different modes of decoration. Some of the styles show the long pointed overskirt, and these have a wide braided girdle. Others have the short pointed overskirt, with solid color piping and button trimming.

One pretty style is the all-round pleated skirt, with wide solid color band simulating the tunic effect. Long and three-quarter sleeves are both shown.

Blue, pink, lavender, green, mode and tan zephyr Dresses. In stripes and checks.
